CERN's Year of Environmental Awareness
TAKE ACTION ON WASTE BY RESPECTING THE 3 Rs

REDUCE

What CERN does

- Limiting packaging of supplies
- Optimising equipment use through shares and loans (e.g. CERN electronics pool)
- Reducing single-use items

What you can do

- Take a critical look at your waste production
- Analyse your material and equipment needs
- Share equipment whenever possible
- Avoid single-use items (e.g. bring your own mug and cutlery)

REUSE

What CERN does

- Providing centralised storage areas for equipment reuse
- Offering used equipment for private reuse (e.g. IT equipment)
- Reusing materials whenever possible (e.g. accelerator components, shielding blocks, transportation packages, etc.)

What you can do

- Bring or pick up surplus materials from the Storage, Recuperation and Sales service (Bldg. 133)
- Send Lyreco boxes back to the CERN stores
- Ask for refills whenever possible (e.g. hydro-alcoholic gel, etc.)

RECYCLE

What CERN does

- Installing recycling points in office buildings ("Green office" pilot project)
- IT-waste collection campaign
- Providing over 500 waste sorting containers (indicated on the GIS portal)

What you can do

- Complete the e-learning module on waste management
- Sort your waste
- Encourage recycling in your work environment

Digitalized Money Transactions

We gave information about digitization of India. We gave information about being “Go Cash Less”, we gave information about How we can use the latest online application to transfer the amount to others By not wasting there time by standing in queue for hours and waiting for their turn. We gave them information about how we can make online payments by using the latest apps like phone pay, Paytm, Google pay, bill desk etc., which are making our life to get easier and time saving and not only we gave them this information but also gave awareness about the online scams and to be safe and secure while do the payments.

Our procession ended successfully in an informative way hoping the information give by us to the villagers will be usefull to them to get awareness about what is real world is up to for there betterment of life and might help them to cope up with new society.
